Mission Statement

The Southern Institute on Children and Families is an independent, non-profit organization that improves the well-being of children and families through knowledge, leadership and action.

Southern Institute on Children and Families

Geographic Focus*

Note: The Southern Institute on Children and Families directs national, regional, state and local programs consistent with our mission, with a special focus on the Southern Region.

Knowledge – Leadership - Action

Southern Region

- Thirteen (13) southern states and the District of Columbia have a higher percentage of children living in poverty than the nation as a whole.
- Of the 9 million uninsured children, 4 million (45%) reside in the South.
- Forty-five percent (45%) of uninsured children in the South are below the poverty level.
- Nine (9) southern states and the District of Columbia have a greater percentage of fourth grade students reading below grade level than the rest of the nation.

The Opportunity

- The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Commitment
 - Covering Kids
 - Supporting Families After Welfare Reform
 - Covering Kids & Families
- The Southern Institute's Experience and Leadership in Documenting Barriers to Medicaid Coverage
- Passage of SCHIP in 1997

The Goals

- Reduce the number of uninsured children and adults who are eligible for Medicaid or SCHIP coverage, but remain uninsured
- Improve eligibility processes to facilitate the enrollment and renewal processes
- Build knowledge, experience and capacity to achieve an enduring national and regional commitment to sustain the enrollment and retention of children and adults

The Accomplishments

- Knowledgeable network of people across the nation
- More public and private entities engaged in the effort

Successful Strategies for Enrollment

- Pennsylvania uses a Web-based application system to support simplification efforts
- Iowa uses an automated referral process between Medicaid and SCHIP to ensure that children don't lose coverage
- Louisiana uses a simplified eligibility process, including performing ex parte reviews

Uninsured Children

What Remains to be Done

- Reauthorization and adequate funding of SCHIP
- Continued and expanded outreach
- Improvements in the eligibility process, including retention
- Engagement of key partners such as providers and employers
- State initiatives on coverage
